

Anna Prushinski

Create! I never get bored because I'm always finding more and more things that I want to create! I grew up with wonderful grandmothers and mom who taught me to sew and crochet (I still can't get knitting down). Anytime I saw something, they would teach me how to make it.

And now with the web, the possibilities are endless! There are so many talented and creative people out there and that makes for a great learning community.

I'm a graphic designer by day and a low-brow Martha Stewart by night. I began at FABO with jewelry but have expanded to headbands and soon-to-be decorative felt beanies.

Creating makes me happy and I hope that you will find something that I've made that will make you happy as well.

Life is short! Have fun!
